

Rayburn Wins Party Victory for Kennedy

Rules Change Approved

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Speaker Sam Rayburn won a major party victory for President-elect John F. Kennedy today when House Democrats voted overwhelmingly in favor of a plan to break the power of the Rules Committee to block liberal legislation.

The proposal to expand the membership of the conservative committee was approved at a closed caucus of House Democrats. It still must win approval of the entire House.

ALTHOUGH A bloc of southern Democrats oppose the plan to add two Democrats and one Republican to the 12-man committee, caucus Chairman Francis E. Walter of Pennsylvania predicted the Rayburn proposal will be approved with the help of some Republicans.

No roll call vote was taken at today's Democratic session.

RAYBURN, IN offering his expansion motion, told the Democrats that the increase was necessary if Kennedy's program was to be assured a chance for consideration by the House.

His main foe in the rules fight, Committee Chairman Howard W. Smith, D-Va., made no effort to contest the struggle today. He said that, having counted noses, he knew he was defeated and would not further contest the proposal.

IN THE PAST, Smith and Rep. William Colmer, D-Miss., have teamed up with four Republicans on the committee to stymie House action on legislation.

Other congressional news:

RED CHINA: Adlai E. Stevenson told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that it "may be impossible to prevent" the admission of Red China to the United Nations and the prospect amounts to a "probability" at some future date.

However, Stevenson who will be the U.S. ambassador to the U.N., denied that he has taken a "consistent position" of advocating Communist China's membership in the world organization.

NOMINATIONS: Former North Carolina Gov. Luther H. Hodges won unanimous approval of the Senate Commerce Committee to be commerce secretary in the Kennedy administration. The committee voted 17-0 to recommend his confirmation to the Senate.

The Senate Judiciary Committee voted approval of Archibald Cox to be solicitor general. Byron "Whizzer" White to be deputy attorney general, and William Horsley Orrick Jr., to be assistant attorney general in charge of the civil division.

The Shelter is conducting its continuous drive for funds, necessary to continue operations. Expenses average over $1,000 a month, including $200 for feed bill, $145 for medical charges, $250 for rent, $320 for caretaker's labor (the only paid employee), $100 for utilities.

The Shelter seeks to place all dogs entrusted to its care.

Hearings Enter Second Round

INDIO — The second day of hearings here on the Railway Express Company application for permission to serve the Palm Springs area out of the Indio office began this morning before hearing officer Carter R. Bishop, with solid civic and business support for the application already in the hearing record.

Tuesday, the city of Palm Springs and business groups heartily endorsed the application. City attorney Jerry Bunker and council consultant J. M. McFadden both offered supporting statements from council and the Hotel and Apartment Association.

Southern California superintendent Charles Moore told the hearing today that free pick-up and delivery is scheduled for the Dream Homes addition east of Palm Springs' city limits in the revised service.

'Wear Western' To Be Revived On Saturdays

One of Palm Springs' most colorful traditions will be revived here Saturday when the "Wear Western" slogan is adopted by personnel of virtually all Village stores.

Sponsored by the Retail Merchants Association, the campaign is aimed at accenting the forthcoming Desert Circus celebration (March 1-5) and also at reviving the traditions of the Old West which had a vital role in the early development of Palm Springs.

A perpetual trophy from the Chamber of Commerce will be given each week to the commercial enterprise whose employees best carry out the theme of "Wear Western" in the Saturday project.

At the same time, the Retail Merchants Association urged all Villagers to join the store personnel in the "Wear Western" campaign each Saturday, creating a Western environment in Palm Springs that tourists and visitors will be aware of immediately.

Ike Cites Strength Of Economy

Optimistic View Contrasts With Kennedy Advisers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower said today he is leaving office with the American economy fundamentally strong and likely to resume growing soon.

In his last annual economic report to Congress, the retiring President emphasized the "underlying strength" of the nation's economy and described declines in production and income in the second half of 1960 as "moderate."

HE DECLARED the post-war tendency toward higher prices has been largely arrested, although consumer prices went up an average of 1.4 per cent last year.

Eisenhower's generally optimistic assessment of the business situation contrasted sharply with the views of President-elect John F. Kennedy's advisers. They contend the country is in a recession and the economy "has been sluggish and tired."

EISENHOWER AVOIDED using the word "recession" in his 214-page report. For the benefit of the incoming president and the public, he stressed his conviction that the federal budget should not be unbalanced at this time.

He also warned against artificially driving down interest rates, which he said would be inflationary.

IKE SENDS 'BEST WISHES' TO GOLF CLASSIC

President Dwight D. Eisenhower today sent his official "best wishes" to the second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic.

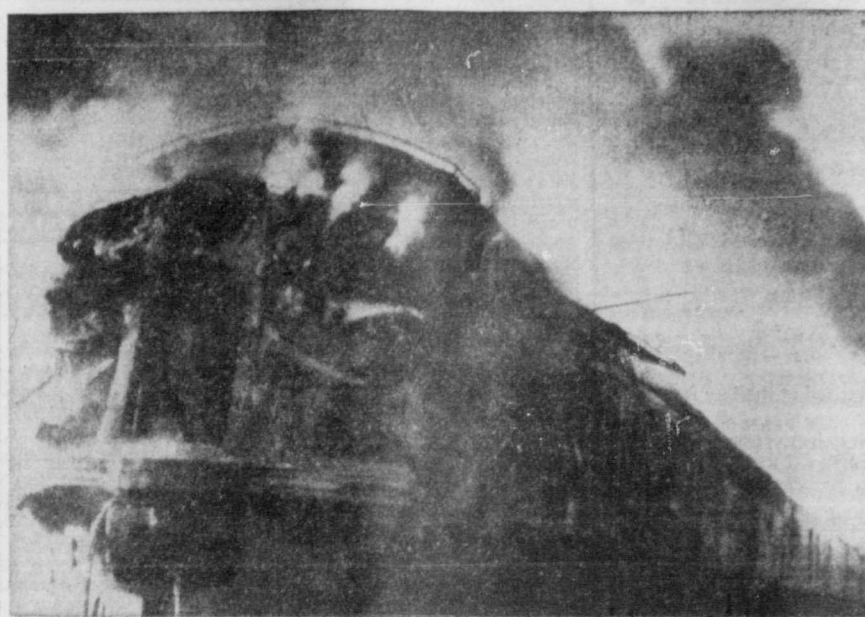

In a telegram to Classic president Leonard K. Firestone, Jr., the President said: "Greetings to all attending and participating in the second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic. This tournament will, I know, bring out the finest competitive play. I wish the best to each contestant."

president; standing, Mrs. Robert Schlesinger, secretary; Lester Selig, vice president, and Mrs. Laura Simmons. A record goal of $98,000 has been set. (Desert Sun Photo)

First City Owned Parking Facility To Be Opened

Opening of the first city-owned, city-developed off-street parking facility at 241 North Indian Avenue is scheduled for 10 a.m. Thursday, when ribbon cutting ceremonies are scheduled.

It marks the first realization of the efforts of the council appointed Off-Street Parking committee composed of Leo Baker, R. A. "Al" Laurye, Dr. Sidney O. Niles, Frank Miller, Herb Mennell.

Developed at a total cost of $105,370.24, it contains 40 parking spaces. These will be metered in the near future on a two hour basis, five cents a half hour.

Laotian Planes 'Double' Attack

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Laotian fighter planes doubled their rocket firepower Tuesday to attack pro-Communist rebel forces retreating northward from Vang Vieng, 65 miles from here.

CORRESPONDENCE 'TELLS' FRICTION

City Attorney Jerome Bunker wrote to League of California Cities executive director Richard Carpenter on Dec. 1 asking that Carpenter furnish the city attorney's office with "a copy of any reply you might make to the city manager" regarding the status of City Finance Officer Shelby Langford. The Desert Sun learned today.

Bunker's letter to Carpenter, construed by City Hall observers as an attempt to bypass City Manager Dan Wagner in communications with Carpenter, was made public today as Wagner unveiled a massive, 24-page file on the matter.

THE REVELATION of Bunker's letter lent considerable strength to a story published in yesterday's Desert Sun in which it was reported that sources close to the City Council feel that Bunker's job is in jeopardy at this time.

Wagner released the entire file today without comment.

CARPENTER'S REPORT, which says there are inconsistencies between the Director of Finance ordinance and the City Manager ordinance, indicates that any change of the City Manager ordinance must come by a vote of the people, but the Director of Finance ordinance can be made consistent with the City Manager ordinance. He recommends that the council place the administrative control of the city under one head, the city manager, "to serve always at the discretion and pleasure of the city council."

The City Council had ordered Wagner to seek an official opinion from the League of California Cities regarding changes in status of city's finance director, Langford. On Nov. 29, Wagner complied with the council request, seeking the opinion from Carpenter. Wagner specifically asked for clarification of both the Finance Director ordinance and the City Manager ordinance.

BUNKER'S LETTER, dated Dec. 1, asked Carpenter to tell him whether "a vote of the people was required in order to place the appointment of the director of finance under the city manager."

It was in this same letter that Bunker also requested copies of "any reply" between the League and Wagner.

Bunker was not available today to discuss whether he received copies of such correspondence directed to City Manager Wagner.

City attorney's office reported that he was in court at Indio.

CITY COUNCILMEN, apparently irritated by Bunker's letter bypassing the city manager, have asked Warren Slaughter, a practicing Palm Springs attorney, to appear before them at 11 a.m. Monday, and "interpret" the Carpenter report. The council action was construed by most competent City Hall observers as a direct reprimand to Bunker for his letter-writing efforts.

It has also become an almost openly declared situation which exists within the council in regard to Bunker. At least four council members are known to be demanding the resignation or dismissal of the city attorney. The other three are apparently willing to settle for only a reprimand.

THE COUNCIL STILL faces some amount of scrutiny from news media for its continued wave of so-called personnel sessions dealing with the Bunker-Langford situation.

Under provisions of the Brown Act, a council may meet privately to discuss matters pertaining to individual personnel. But the council has apparently discussed a complete renovation of the city's administrative set-up — with emphasis on a realignment of the City Finance Office — and this action must be conducted under public conditions according to the anti-secrecy law.

PUBLIC INVITED

Airport Groups To Meet Tonight

A report and planning session of the Executive Airport committee has been called for tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the council chambers at the city hall. Present will be the Executive committee and is parent body, the General Airport committee. The public has also been invited.

On the agenda will be a report of the work which has been done by the Executive group toward organizing efforts for a successful bond election March 14 for the acquisition of the Palm Springs airport by the city.

Present System 'Silly'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today advocated a constitutional amendment to allow a new chief executive to take office sooner after his election and at least 60 days before Congress meets.

In his farewell press conference, Eisenhower did not dwell on details of his proposal for shortening the transition period that follows presidential successions.

BUT HE SAID HE favored a plan to set the election date and time the inauguration so that a new president would have at least 80 days to prepare messages for his first Congress.

Eisenhower said it seemed a little bit silly under the present system for a new president to come into office on Jan. 20 and then make major changes in the budget presented by the outgoing chief executive.

THE NEW PRESIDENT should have time to prepare a budget, an economic report, and draft a state of the union message before Congress convenes, Eisenhower said. Speaking to an overflow crowd of 250 newsmen two days before he leaves office, the President was in high spirits.

This was his 193rd, and last, press conference as president.

OTHER NEWS conference highlights:

—The greatest problem facing President-elect John F. Kennedy will be the intransigent and unreasonable attitude of the Communist bloc as demonstrated in Tuesday's speech by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

—Failure to achieve lasting accord on arms reduction was a major disappointment in foreign relations.

BULLETIN

Fire and Police department personnel, together with school officials, this noon started a check of Nellie Coffman Junior High School, after receiving two calls of a "bomb planted" there.

Students were evacuated through a "fire drill," and all buildings are being checked. One call was to the school, the other to the police station.

A similar report caused a check at the High School last week.

Tab Hunter Joins PD Players

The Ferrall's Playhouse at Deep Well opens up next Tuesday night, the Martin Beck PlayerStage company performs for the Indio Kiwanis Club at Coachella Valley Union High School Saturday but not all of the drama news is being made by our local companies.

The second of a series of "Chuck Wagon Breakfasts" aimed at aiding the Palm Desert Players achieve a building fund for their new theater and headquarters produced 28 new members including a fellow who signed in from Hollywood under the name of Tab Hunter.

HUNTER, THE GUEST of Mrs. Hudson Werder, lends a new quality to the Palm Desert Players budding program of expansion. A young but highly-regarded star, Hunter's name lends vitality to the plucky thespian group who have struggled for some three years to give drama a toehold in the mid-Valley area.

Nearly 100 persons were on hand for the Sunday breakfast, with proceeds aimed at swelling the group's building fund. A meeting with Hank Gogerty is also scheduled. Gogerty is donating his talent as an architect in the reviewing of the plans for the Palm Desert Players Theater.

In addition to the breakfast, the Players also launched plans for a number of other facets of their organization.

SINCE A NUMBER of the members are avid horsemen, the Players indicated they would form a riding organization.

Plans for closer coordination of the Palm Desert Boy Scouts activities with the Players group is also under discussion since the Scouts are to be given facilities on the Players property.

The Players are also getting up their next play with director Clay Sterns reporting that casting is nearly complete.

And, finally, the Players plan to attend all performances of the Ferrall's Playhouse in Deep Well as a group, thereby evincing one of the first tangible forms of intra-arts support here on our desert. Nice going, Players. (Now let's see some of the other groups duplicate that action.)

SAVE SATURDAY night for the 3rd Annual "Harmony in the Palms" program at Palm Springs High School auditorium.

Some of the best-known, prize-winning barber shop quartets in the Southern California area will blend voices in an evening of song. Included in the lineup will be the Four Bits of Harmony, the Siders, the Aristochords and a girl's quartet from the Sweet Adelines, Inc., called the Keynotes.

In addition our two local quartets — the Desert Rats and the Sandblasted Four — will also be in evidence and so will the Palm Springs chorus of the Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America. You shouldn't miss it.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: When Freddy Martin was in town, he made a beeline for the El Mirador Hotel where he virtually completed negotiations that would send Eddy Howard and his orchestra to Los Angeles' Ambassador Hotel for the summer months. . . . Eddy will definitely be back at the El Mirador for another long stint during the 1961-62 season, too. . . .

My boss, publisher Carl Schoos, gets the enviable chore of introducing Pulitzer Prize-winning writer-author Harrison Salisbury in tomorrow night's Community Forum. . . . Probably the most informed man now writing about Russia, Salisbury's appearance promises a new insight to that nation of constant enigma. . . .

Speaking of our staff, Don Klotzbuecher answered a PSHS journalism student's question on how to run a newspaper with the simple rejoinder: "Ask one of our subscribers."

EVERY LITTLE MOVEMENT has a little meaning, but you'll need more than a dictionary to figure out what Evalani, pretty Samoa hula dancing star, is planning in the undulating motions she undertakes at the South Pacific Room of Ray Ryan's El Mirador Hotel. Evalani stars nightly in the exotic room famed for its Polynesian atmosphere, food and entertainment. Evalani's co-stars are Tommy Ainau and his Hawaiian Serenaders and vocal and dancing star Prince Kawohi. (Conrad Hug Photo)

SCHOOL DISTRICT NOTES:

Homemaker Title For Norma Goforth

Norma Dale Goforth, pretty violet-blue eyed Palm Springs High School senior, has been named tops here in the 1961 Betty Crocker American Homemaker of Tomorrow competition.

Norma, who plans a career as nutritionist, received a personal letter from Betty Crocker for her outstanding rating. She will represent Palm Springs in the California competition.

The willowy brunette lists cooking as her favorite of the homemaker arts, but received her title and Homemaker of Tomorrow pin for top standing in a comprehensive survey of subjects ranging from housekeeping to household bookkeeping.

The top student of homemaker instructor Miss Elda Murphy follows older sister Judy as the Betty Crocker Homemaker. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Goforth, Desert Hot Springs, and a desert resident since her third grade years.

The second annual Mother and Daughter Tea and Fashion Show sponsored by the Girls' League and Homemaker classes of Palm Springs High School is set for Feb. 3.

Details of the annual afternoon fete will be presented on The Desert Sun Woman's Page.

Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School scientists have had a mixed month.

Over the vacation, teacher Ronald Jahelka, accompanied by his wife and Betty Stephen, drove into the volcanic cone area south of Amboy to prep a field trip for January.

The lava punched two holes in the oil pan of Jahelka's new station wagon.

Happier news is the purchase of eight new microscopes and botanical slides for NCC science students. Three scopes had previously served the average 30 student classes.

NCC science teacher Harold Bentley is planning a Pacific ocean field trip for interested elective students. The trip will be for study of sea shore and tide pool biology, and ecology, and add to permanent school collections. Ecology is bionomics: relation of creatures to their environment.

A cultural swap is planned among NCC students, with all seventh grade art and music students being switched by counselors. Plan is to give each student sample of both course, allow full year electives in the students choice during the eighth grade.

Mrs. Marcia Stepp's individualized P. E. classes demonstrated several exercises for the Parent-Teacher Guild meeting last Thursday. NCC principal Warren Linville auctioneered a "Dutch" party sale of "white elephant" donations and baked goods after the meeting.

Desert Hot Springs elementary school reached a 189 pupil peak enrollment last week.

Recently third graders in Mrs. Barbara Marshall's class joined Mrs. Grace Bynum's fourth graders in a Desert Museum tour here. Third graders studied the desert, fourth graders Indians of the desert.

Berkey Plan For Airports Given Stall

Supervisors Not Acting Until Feb. 27 Session

The Riverside County Board of Supervisors decided this week to delay any action on changes in administration of the county's airports proposed by Supervisor George Berkey until Feb. 27.

Supervisor Norman Davis said he would like to await completion of a survey by Stanford Research Institute on airport needs throughout Southern California. He apparently believes the report might shed some light on operations of airports of other counties. A preliminary report by the Institute is expected to be available by the end of this month.

"YOU ARE HAMPERING the operation of our airports by holding up the appointment of an airport director," declared Supervisor Fred McCall.

Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen said a study is now being made by personnel director Donald Spencer with the chairman of the airport commission as to the possibility of changing job specifications to fit assistant director C. J. McKillop, Jr.

THE COMMISSION recommended the appointment of McKillop to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Director C. H. Jones but it was found that he cannot qualify for the job under existing required qualifications.

Berkey has suggested that administration of the airports be placed under Administrative Officer Andersen with an assistant, doing away with the present position of airports director, and that the commission serve in an advisory rather than an administrative capacity.

SPENCER HAS under consideration creation of the position of superintendent of maintenance to supervise maintenance of all the county's airports relieving the airports director of the responsibility. With the airports in different parts of the county, Hemet, Thermal and Blythe, maintenance problems consume considerable time.

Spencer is expected to have recommendations for job specifications ready to present to the commission at its next regular meeting Jan. 25. The commission will probably determine the same day on a recommendation to the Board of Supervisors.

Flavorsome

NEW YORK (UPI) — Winter squash makes a pretty, flavorsome pie. Combine 1 cup of sugar with 1 tablespoon of flour, 1/2 teaspoon of salt, 1 teaspoon each of ground ginger and cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon of ground nutmeg and 1/2 teaspoon of ground cloves. Stir in 2 cups of mashed cooked fresh yellow squash. Beat in 3 eggs. Gradually add 1 cup of light cream or undiluted evaporated milk. Pour into a 9-inch pie plate lined with unbaked pastry. Bake in a preheated 400-degree oven 50 minutes, or until a knife inserted in the center comes out clean. Serves 6.

TONY SPENDS 86TH BIRTHDAY IN 'QUENTIN

SAN QUENTIN Calif. (UPI) — Tony di Tardo observed his 86th birthday at San Quentin Prison Monday — and his 41st behind prison walls.

Di Tardo has turned down parole 27 times since he was given a life sentence for killing his wife in San Jose, Calif., in 1919.

"I just want to sit in my rocking chair," said the old convict, cutting a piece of a birthday cake which he received from the hospital staff. "I'll stay here until the big boss calls me."

More Facilities to Benefit All

Greatly improved recreational facilities in this area are included in the 1961 project budget of the State Park Commission. As announced recently, the proposal is to spend $2,500,000 at Salton Sea State Park and $1,750,000 on improvements in nearby San Jacinto State Park. Further development of facilities on the shore of the inland sea and in one of California's most beautiful state parks will go a long way toward rounding out one of the nation's most varied recreational areas.

This unique combination of mountain, desert and inland water recreational facilities can be found nowhere else in the country. Already established as one of the nation's most popular golf centers, the Palm Springs area is benefitting greatly through the development of water sports and other facilities at Salton Sea. Add to this the striking contrast of summer and winter recreation in the nearby lofty mountains and you have just about everything! The wide range of appeal to lovers of outdoor activities is almost unlimited. Little wonder that growth here is continuing at such a rapid pace.

It is unusual also to find all this within easy reach of over five million city dwellers. Weekend vacationing is becoming more popular all the time and this desert-mountain-inland sea region is only a few hours away.

In its park expansion program for the whole state, the State Park Commission is recognizing the need for more picnic and camping facilities. It points out that expansion of such state services as prisons, youth reformatories, mental hospitals, highways and social welfare have far outdistanced provision for recreation. Outdoor activities are important to the well-being of citizens, young and old, and provision for wholesome recreation is a necessary function of the state government — along with federally supported projects of this nature.

We hope that our legislature will support this 5-year program for development of additional facilities in California's state parks and the acquisition of some land.

Provision has been made to meet increasing recreational needs of every section of the state—and all will benefit accordingly.

Looking Forward to Trip

NEW YORK — Am looking forward to a trip to Israel soon aboard El Al, the Israeli Airline. "A great experience," reports Bill Berns, of the New York World's Fair group, who just returned. "El Al has twice as many stewardesses as any other airline. One girl serves you your meal and another one keeps patting you on the back and saying, 'You should eat a little something, dolling.'"

SYMON GOULD, a good-sport loser in the recent presidential election — he was the candidate of the American Vegetarian Party — brings me up to date on things in vegetariansville. "That's a wonderful story you did re. Jack Kennedy's dad. It should adjust many anti views to a correct understanding of Joe, who has been living in a miasma of undue and cryptic deprecatory estimate."

BEFORE YOU start rereading that, slowly, listen to some other good news: "Put something in the paper about Raymond Duncan, the American-Greco. He is back in New York, untroussed as usual and toga'd, and is scheduled to hold forth at Carnegie Hall on Jan. 28 in a one man show orating and berating all of us for sending civilization down the drain. He's an unusual vegetarian specimen who is in his middle 60's, most durable mentally, physically and esthetically... brother of unforgettable Isadora Duncan, the original beatnik."

ONE OF THE MOST remarkable young men of our time, Dr. Tom Dooley, lies gravely ill in New York's Memorial Hospital. The gifted American doctor who co-founded Medico and worked himself to the bone in its cause, has had a serious recurrence of the cancer found in his chest wall in 1959.

In his book, "The Night They Burned The Mountain," (Farrar, Straus and Cudahy) Tom relates how he got the Word. He and his assistants were carrying on their work of attending to the sick poor of Laos though war was beginning to rage closer around them. In the midst of things he received a bewildering telegram, through Lao army sources, reading, "From the command uras doctor Dooley urgent return Tous immediately."

THE MESSAGE was broken down in time to read "From Peter Comanduras: Doctor Dooley, urgent return to U.S. immediately." Dr. Comanduras runs Medico.

Dooley had to be pried out of there. He feared the natives would conclude he was chicken-ning out in the face of danger. And that Medico was undergoing a money crisis. It never occurred to Dooley that the call to come home was associated with a small tumor which a fellow doctor had cut out of his chest some time before and shipped to Hong Kong for study.

BETWEEN PLANES in Bangkok he ran into Hank Miller of USA and his wife Annie, old friends. He poured out to them his concern over not being able to get any more information out of Dr. Comanduras in New York — and guessed he was being brought home for something as trivial as a TV show. Months later, in his book, Dooley wrote:

"Hank looked at me and Coolly said, 'I know why you are going home. I will tell you, Tom.' I leaned forward, took a deep breath and pleaded, 'What's wrong, Hank?' My tension was at its peak. I thought I would burst. Slowly, deliberately, he said, 'The rumor that Dr. Van Valin removed has been diagnosed as a secondary stage of malignant melanoma.'"

"I HAD NO REACTION. The words entered my head like a fist jammed into a pillow. I felt nothing. I neither felt elation at finding that Medico was not in a state of chaos, nor did I feel great dejection at finding out that I had a hideously malignant growth of cancer. It just seemed for a moment that all was quiet. All was tranquil for now. At last, I knew."

God love him. —Bob Considine

Another American Institution

WASHINGTON — The distribution of CARE packages, which started out as a temporary post-war relief program, has now become a sort of American institution, like baseball, hot dogs and Marlene Dietrich's legs.

Technically, Marlene's legs are not 100 per cent American since they were imported from Germany. But let's not quibble. Any American who would quibble over Marlene's legs probably should be deported.

WHENEVER I THINK of CARE, which isn't as often as I think of Marlene's legs, I think of it in terms of the eternal question of which came first, the name or the initials?

CARE was originally an abbreviation of "Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe." Then, when it outgrew that name, it became an abbreviation of "Cooperative for American Relief Everywhere."

THIS WOULD indicate that the CARE people began with the initials and then thought up names to fit them. Which gives them something in common with Lyndon B. Johnson.

It was almost 15 years ago that the first CARE package was sent to Western Europe to help feed victims of World War II. Since then, the organization has dispatched more than $388 million worth of food and supplies to more than 50 countries.

CARE NOW HAS more packages than Heinz has soups. They come in more than 70 varieties, ranging from $1 food parcels to $100 machines used to make building blocks.

If you're wondering how I happen to know so much about CARE it's because I attended a reception given for the 28 CARE mission chiefs who are meeting here this week to discuss plans for further expansion.

They are a dedicated lot and like to talk shop. I came away with a note pad full of incidental foreign intelligence which they brought in from their distant outposts.

FOR INSTANCE, Roy Rhodes, who runs the CARE mission in Hong Kong, told me that the Chinese Communists have banned the ancient game of mah jong. Anyone caught with a mah jong set is required to deliver it to the police station — piece by piece, one piece per day.

That being the case, it seems to me our Central Intelligence Agency ought to consider setting up a mah jong underground in the Far East. Possibly the sets could be smuggled into Red China in CARE packages.

If flooded with mah jong sets, it would disrupt the latest five-year plan and give us a leg up in the cold war.

ANOTHER CARE chief, David E. Jack of Mexico, gave me a briefing on a hot sauce made by the Indian natives of the Yucatan peninsula. It is called "sneepack," a Mayan word meaning "dog's mouth."

"That's because the first time you taste it you begin panting," Jack explained.

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

No prophet am I
But somehow I feel
It won't be long now
Before that Tram is real.

That's just a hunch, of course, but I've got a feeling that during the year we're going to get big news about the proposed Mt. San Jacinto Tramway.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS ago Francis Crocker mopped his brow on a hot August day and gazed up at the cool mountain barrier west of town. "Wouldn't it be wonderful," he asked his friend, Carl Barknow then publisher of The Desert Sun, "if there was a quick way to get up there out of this heat?"

The two of them moved on but the Tramway idea was born.

FOR THE RECORD, let me say I've heard nothing in the past few weeks to justify this confident attitude but I have that hunch.

Besides, 1961 is the upside down year so why wouldn't it be the year to turn the climate upside down?

Turn a torrid summer day into spring, fall or winter in about 12 minutes via the Tramway.

YOU KNOW, there's a good percentage in making these long range prophecies.

If it doesn't happen, people will forget what you said.

If it does, you can always point back with pride and say: "See, I told you so on January 18."

DO YOU KNOW that these loud booming raucous commercials cost you two bits a week? I didn't either until Sunday.

Then I read some figures presented by a guy who has more patience than I have and probably an IBM computer handy.

Figuring the average cost of sets, the average viewing hours, and other operational costs, dividing that by the time commercials are on the air, he came up with the answer, 25 cents a week.

THIS CHAP was too conservative. He based his answer on commercials taking up one-sixth of each program. That's only five minutes to the half hour. I figure it's at least ten minutes. So that would be four bits, or 50 cents in our language, to the week.

Anyway, it doesn't bother me. I have one of those no-gag devices. Comes the commercial and I snap the switch and go out to the refrigerator to look for a cold chicken wing or a drumstick.

THAT TAKES CARE of the sponsors whose contract reads that the stations turn up the volume ten decibels when putting on the commercials.

This is so that the people who do not have a tune-off switch, can hear about the deodorants, miracle medicines and hair tonics even if they are two rooms away uncapping a bottle of beer.

They say the only time a woman can really change a man is when he's still a baby.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Easy Come, Easy Go

Though hair covers a great deal of ground with the poets, they speak only of woman's crowning glory.

"Do but look on her hair; it is bright

"As love's star when it riseth." So said Ben Jonson. Not a particularly romantic fellow, but apparently touched by women's hair.

(NO POET HAS ever covered the point that this beautiful stuff is reluctant to go down a drain. And also comes off and clings to blue suits. Why is that?)

Anyway, what I was about to say. A great deal of romance has been written about women's lovely locks. But none has been written about man's.

"RUB THE JUICE of 20 onions into the scalp," wrote an unromantic British doctor of the 17th Century. "It will raise hair a foot long."

Science reporters inquired into this with scientists a couple of years ago.

The scientists said Science had not come up with any better answer in all this time.

This is poor consolation to a man whose hair has gone thataway.

AS CONSOLATION, however, the scientists pointed out that Mr. Eisenhower had very little hair. Also Adlai Stevenson.

They did not say there was anything in the Constitution that said a man had to shed his hair before he could be President or run for office. But they implied that it was a big help.

"Gorillas are not bald," said the scientists.

Now along comes J. F. Kennedy with a mop you could dust floors with.

How about that?

IF MAN IS NOT worried about losing his hair, he worries about it turning gray.

In Spartanburg, South Carolina last year, an alert reporter noticed that Judge William Daventport's gray hair was turning black.

"How come, Judge?" inquired the inquiring reporter. "Sunflower seeds, son," said the jurist.

THE JUDGE THEN reached in his pistol pocket and pulled out a pack of sunflower seeds. He said that he went down to the seed store each day and bought these — I imagine you get them at stores where they sell them to parakeets.

He bought them. And while listening to tall stories of torts and burglars and divorces, he nibbled at them. And lo and behold, his hair began turning black again.

THOUGH NONE of this inspired me to poetry — I am a romantic person and inspire easily, too. None of this inspired me to verse. But it did inspire me to research.

I researched the "Oregon hair farmer." He was press-agented by a friend of mine named Brownie.

THE HAIR FARMER had some goop you rubbed on your head. Brownie swore it raised hair that was the McCoy.

There was another man I researched who raised hair by electricity. He sat you in a wired chair and gave you a shock in the seat of your pants. Just a little short of what the State of New York does free for clients up at Sing Sing.

NONE OF THIS has been subjected to treatment by the poets. Though they have given pages and pages to women's lovely tresses.

Which, when you come to think of it, also gets stuck in your brushes. And is simply murder to rinse down the drain.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: We need your advice. We are 200 seventh grade students. We have a teacher who is very pretty, but she is already 27 years old and she isn't married and we are afraid she is going to be an old maid.

There is a darling policeman who is a bachelor and would be just right for her. He wants to meet her, but he is quite shy. How can we get them together?

Thank you. "200 CUPIDS"

DEAR "CUPIDS": The next time your school has a social function, (PTA, Visiting Night, a school play or a hop) one of your boys should invite this policeman to come as his guest. Then one of the girls should tell the school teacher that the policeman was invited because he was interested in meeting her. Then all you "cupids" should disappear.

DEAR ABBY: Please print this for all the people who complained about the price of haircuts: Barbers, along with clergymen, firemen and policemen, belong to the "sacrifice" group. The public expects them to work for nothing.

I have the most trouble with baldies. They can comb their hair with a wash rag, yet they come in and ask for a haircut. ("Just trim it around the ears a little.") Then they gripe because I took off too much. Too much what?

"HANK (I USE YOUR HEAD IN MY BUSINESS) THE BARBER."

DEAR ABBY: According to the way everything else has gone up, haircuts should be $5. And when the barber has to work half an hour fixing up a home haircut after it has been butchered by an amateur, he should charge $7.50.

Do you know it costs a barber $600 to go to school, 18 months' apprenticeship, $50 for a set of clippers, $25 to take his barber test and $5 a year for a license? You tell 'em, Abby. JOE

DEAR JOE: I guess that settles it. A barber shop is no clip joint.

DEAR ABBY: I am going with a woman who has been legally separated from her husband for six years. I want to marry her but she says she can't get a divorce because of her religion. What do you advise me to do? RICHARD

DEAR RICHARD: Quit wasting your time.

HEARTENING FISH STORY

CHICAGO — Chicagoans, currently basking with most of the nation in unseasonal warmth, will continue to enjoy a mild winter, a commercial fisherman says.

Mathon Kyritis, who annually translates fish habits into weather prophecies, said he caught Lake Michigan perch in a mere 90 feet of water, which affords little protection from the cold.

"They should be 200 feet deep at this time of the year," he said.

SIMPLE ECONOMICS

LONDON — Seventy agriculture students at a dairy farm in Lincolnshire drink dried milk instead of milk fresh from the farm's 50 cows.

"It may sound odd but it's a simple case of economics," the farm director said Sunday, explaining the dried milk is cheaper.

An 18-hole golf course, long discussed as a vital need for the Palm Springs area, will be open for play Jan. 25. Johnny Dawson, amateur golf champion and president of the Thunderbird Ranch and Country Club, made the announcement that construction is completed and members may start play at that time.

Another "meanest man" thief was active in Palm Springs this week. The Rev. Michael J. O'Connor reported that someone had stolen the poor box from Our Lady of Solitude Church Tuesday. "There couldn't have been more than a couple of dollars in the box," Father O'Connor said. Police promised to work extra hard to track down the culprit.

For Villagers who like diversity in their sports, trout fishing in a nearby pool is the newest thing offered. J. T. Utilizing waters of the stream which flows through White-water Ranch and his own property, he has made a pool about 300 feet long.

Many parents in Palm Springs are agitating to establish the curfew law, and it is obvious that in many instances it would be a desirable provision. An investigation is being made, and if it reveals that the rule would not result in any complications, all minors will have to be at home when the curfew rings at 8 o'clock.

Idahoans Jet Off To Hawaii

By JEAN PATANE
Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galyan, winter residents from Boise, Idaho, left Tuesday via jet for Honolulu. They plan on spending the next two weeks visiting the many interesting places in the Hawaiian Islands. 512 Compete in 2nd Classic

Entries Almost Full Up

With 128 of the top professional golfers in the nation teamed with 384 leading amateurs, play will get under way two weeks from today in the second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic, utilizing five of the desert area's famed country club lay-outs. The tournament runs from Feb. 1 through Feb. 5.

Entries for the amateurs in the four-day Pro-Am covering 72 holes already has a waiting list and the pro ranks are filling rapidly.

FIRST FOUR DAYS of the Classic will feature the Pro-Am, four-somes of one pro and three amateurs playing a different course each day.

The Pro-Am will be played over Bermuda Dunes, Eldorado, Indian Wells and Thunderbird Country Club courses, for the first four days, 72 holes.

ON SUNDAY, February 5, the 60 low pros and ties, will play the final 18 of the 90-hole tournament for the top prizes over the Tamarisk Country Club course.

As was the case last year, a $50,000 prize has been posted for a hole-in-one. Joe Campbell won the prize last year with an ace on the 205-yard fifth hole at Tamarisk. Because of his feat, Lloyd's of London, which insured the Classic in 1960 for a $4,800 premium, this year is asking $13,500. But they have added a clause—anyone scoring a hole in one can insure himself against a second hole in one by paying half of this premium.

ARNOLD PALMER, who won the event last year as the first step toward becoming the leading money winning pro of the year, was a guest at the Classic luncheon in Los Angeles Monday when the permanent President Eisenhower trophy was unveiled.

"The Classic is the finest event in the country — and I'm looking forward to playing in it as long as I play — or as long as it is held," he said.

LAST TWO DAYS of the Classic will be televised nationally bringing added fame to the Desert Empire and the World's Winter Golf Capital.

Minimum purse is $50,000 plus the $50,000 for a hole-in-one.

Last year's distribution totalled more than $150,000.

PRESIDENT of the Classic, only 90-hole tournament on the pro circuit, is Leonard Firestone Jr. David Holub is secretary — treasurer and on the executive board are Ernie Dunlevie, Bermuda Dunes; Milt Hicks, Indian Wells; Robert McCulloch, Eldorado; Lou Golan, Tamarisk and Eric Stainton, Thunderbird.

Milt Hicks is tournament chairman and on his committee are the five pros of the clubs where it will be played, Ed Vines, Bermuda Dunes; Walter Burkemo, Eldorado; Eddie Sussala, Indian Wells; Ellsworth Vines, Tamarisk and Claude Harmon, Thunderbird.

Bunetta Leading In Pin Classic By Wide Margin

SAN BERNARDINO — Mrs. Marion Ladewig, a 47-year-old grandmother from Grand Rapids, Mich., goes after her eighth title in 12 years and Bill Bunetta, Chicago, Ill., tries for his first title as finals play gets underway today in the 20th National All-Star Bowling Tournament.

Bunetta, with 7809 points, entered the finals enjoying a 110-pin lead over his closest rival, Earl Johnson, also of Chicago.

Mrs. Ladewig, the only former women's champion to qualify for the finals, with 4898 points, had a 41-pin lead over Robbie Frey, Dallas, Tex.

Sadie Dixon, Chester, Pa., in third place with 4827 points, Tuesday night became the first Negro woman ever to qualify for the finals in the tournament being held this year at the Orange Show Exhibit Hall here.

The top three women — Ladewig, Frey and Dixon — Tuesday night broke the existing women's record for 24 games, 4820, set Jan. 11, 1960, in Omaha, Neb., by Mena Degymas.

FIGHT RESULTS

LONDON (UPI) — Dave Charney, 127½, London, outpointed Gene Freshman, 127½, Detroit, 16.

McAfee Files Double Entry In Road Race

Will Compete in Main Event and Formula Race

Jack McAfee, former National Sports Car racing champion, has become a double-barreled entry in the 18th running of the Palm Springs Road Races next Saturday and Sunday at the Airport.

The veteran Burbank pilot, already set to drive a Porsche RSK Spyder in the main event, also will handle Harry Jones' Formula Junior Lotus in the formula race, an important feature of the 16-event weekend schedule.

A STRONG FIELD of the small Grand Prix type cars has been collected, Jim Peterson, regional executive for the Sports Car Club of America, said.

McAfee is one of the chief entries in the unday 20-lap main event for modified sports cars, first of nine such races scheduled in 1961 by the SCCA.

Peterson also added that Round Two of a thrilling duel between two of the southland's top women drivers has taken shape for the weekend program with the entry of Betty Shutes and Paula Murohy in the Ladies Race, second event Sunday.

AFTER EXCHANGING the lead in a tight battle of Porsches at Pomona last week, the girls collided on a tricky turn late in the race. Although both cars were damaged, they finished the race with Mrs. Shutes winning.

The traditional Palm Springs Airport road races which starts the year for the western division of the SCCA, starts at 1 p.m. Saturday with the finals starting at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. More than 200 drivers are expected.

"Rice's experience as a handler of pitchers will prove of great value to us since we have so many rookies on our staff," said Haney.

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

Linking El Mirador with its cousin across the seas... the Mt. Kenya Safari Club... is the new Safari Room which will bring a touch of the jungle to Palm Springs... It will have everything... except Johnny Weissmuller giving forth with the Tarzan yell... and that can probably be arranged... That frame that has been built out over the entrance to what used to be the Kiva Room... will be a canopy with inverted spears... and a black-and-white tent... and inside will be white monkeys in cages... setting the motif for the White Monkey Bar... where under an arbor of jungle trees... you'll sip such cocktails as Tigers Milk and Jungle Drum...

It's artist John Morris and decorator Victor Burch... who have brought the tawny color and brilliant effects of Africa to the room... John's murals are exciting in color tones and design... and his lions and cheetahs have personalities... which range from happy to sour... The murals set the motif for Burch's vibrant decor... like the cheetah print and tiger-striped carpeting... all in the rich, lush colors of the veldt and the jungle... Safari Room personnel will be costumed to match... with the doorman with a leopard cape around his shoulders... the waitresses in leopard print tennis...

length dresses... and the bar-men adding leopard cumberbunds to their uniforms... The hallway... connecting the new L-shaped Room with the hotel lobby... has been changed so there is room for booths... so that the Room can now accommodate 150 persons... Other innovations include the parquet dance floor... Food service will feature White Hunter's luncheon and dinner... with dinner served from rolling silver carts... personally supervised by a chef wearing a zebra-striped cap instead of the conventional chef's all white... Entertainment will star songstress Betty Duncan and the music of the Lamplighters (in bush jackets and khaki slacks)... and the Chuck Travis Trio... The Safari Room will be opened next week... with a grand opening scheduled later this month.

So many are flying east for the Inaugural... we are sure to miss some... but it's certainly news when a Republican is invited... Delyle Virginia Compton (she's society editor for the Las Vegas Sun... and daughter of Cecile W. Crist of 465 Vereda Sur) is invited and... with Supreme Court Justice Frank McNamee of Nevada... will be with the Presidential party... She and her mother left yesterday for Washington... Delyle is from a pioneer family of Virginia and a member of the Webster family who escaped the Webster Massacre in Fredricksburg, Virginia... a direct descendant of Daniel Webster... AMUSING EXPRESSIONS mark the jungle animals in the murals which artist John Morris is painting in El Mirador's new Safari Room. Cheetahs, lions and leopards are portrayed with expressions ranging from "I-swallowed-a-canary" look on the fellow on the left, and the slightly worried expressions his companion is wearing, to bulging lion who looks like he might have consumed an indigestible missionary. Newlyweds Honored at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Walters of Desert Hot Springs, who were married in Las Vegas in mid-November, were honored by 250 guests at a belated wedding reception Sunday afternoon at the Highlander restaurant. Mrs. Walters is the former Aletha Burnam, past president of the Desert Hot Springs Woman's Club and has been socially active in the community for a number of years. Her two daughters, Patricia Blakemore and Terry Burnam, were in the receiving line.

Mrs. Walters wore a cream colored brocade sheath accented by an orchid corsage. An elaborate hot and cold buffet was followed by a three-tiered wedding cake and punch.

As Mr. Walters is with the Parimutuels, the couple will travel during the racing season but make their permanent home in Desert Hot Springs.

"SHALL I TRY THIS or the chicken curry?" asks Mrs. Harold McAllister of her husband as they fill their plates from the sumptuous selections offered by Tennis Club's Sunday night buffet, which started this weekend as a weekly feature. (P. S. Newsphoto)

Sunday Night Buffet Starts

A display of tasteful and flavorful food, ranging from smoked oysters, or oysters on the half shell, through a navy bean salad and a highly competitive green pepper salad to rare roast beef or chicken with Hungarian noodles, made an instant hit at its opening night appearance at Tennis Club. For old time members it was a pleasant resumption of the Sunday Night Buffet, which has been so popular in previous seasons. A pastry table offered an array of a wide variety of cakes and fruits and cheese.

One of the larger parties included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilkes of Hartford, Connecticut; Mr. and Mrs. H. Silverberg of Denver; Dr. and Mrs. Frank Silverberg of Denver and Palm Springs; Mrs. for two, were Mr. and Mrs. Cor-Abe Hirschfield of Denver; Mrs. Alnelius Cole, Hailparrn of New York City; all Mr. and Mrs. Harold McAllister, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. who are here for a week's stay.

Having an early dinner of "Mack the Knife."

The Todds and The Food Double Billed at Brunch

Shadow Mountain Club had a happy, hungry crowd out for their Sunday brunch. Their hunger was satisfied by a lavish buffet ranging from myriad cold cuts, fruits and salads to hot dishes of eggs, pork chops, chicken, fried corn meal mush, sweetbreads and just about anything their appetites desired, all topped off with a pastry table selection designed to make anyone forget calorie counting.

Art and Dotty Todd and their bass player, Ray Asher, entertained during the brunch (12 to 3 p.m.). Their numbers included a variety of pieces and paces from "Hawaiian Wedding Song" to "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise" (featuring Art on the electric guitar). They closed the show with their famous rendition of "Chanson D'Amour" which has sold over 2 million copies to date and rated the Todds a Decca contract.

Among the members and guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Kapp with Ben Taylor, who just returned from London where he has been studying at Oxford, and his houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bulkey and son, Brooke, from Altadena. The party remained at the club for the showing of Cliff Henderson's films of the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome.

Charter member, Mrs. Henry Passow hosted Mr. and Mrs. Axel Linus with guests from their Casa del Camino, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Brynteson, their nephew, Lundmark Arild, and Miss Kerstin Nilander all from Gothenberg, Sweden.

A group of old friends staying at Sage and Sun renewed acquaintance over brunch. They were

General and Mrs. Leonard Boyd from Santa Rose, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Beatie and Frank Mooney from Marysville, and Mrs. Maude Murchie from Burlingame. Mrs. Victor Shertinger was honored when Art and Dotty Todd played two of her late husband's compositions ("One Night of Love" and "Mar-quetta"). Thirza Schenk, the club's social director, did the vocals.

Come Clean

When ball point pens stain from inky fingers leave smudges on carpets and upholstery, here's a tip to heed — from Bill Gage of the Magikist rug cleaning chain.

First, sponge the ball point stain with sour milk. Just add a little vinegar to sweet milk, then work the liquid into the rug or upholstery with wide, sweeping motions. Wait until the milk is absorbed, then apply again until the stain fades and disappears.

GRAND OPENING FETE

TG&Y Will Make It Official

Formal opening celebrations Thursday, Friday and Saturday will mark the successful new operations here since Dec. 19 of the TG & Y variety store in the new Harold Hicks Center on North Palm Canyon Drive.

The store, open 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Saturday, will feature door prizes for adults and children, plus balloons for the youngsters, during its formal opening, manager Ray Henton reported.

TOP PRIZES will include General Electric frying pan and coffee makers, with $5 and $10 merchandise certificates for children, and other prizes, Henton said.

The 7,200 square foot, 16 employee self-service store offers wide uncluttered aisles, clear indirect lighting and heat pump heating and cooling for year-round customer comfort, Henton stressed.

A full line of conventional variety items, plus small electrical appliances and plans for special ceramics by a leading mid-western ceramics artist are offered for customer choice. Current departments are ladies, misses and infants ready-to-wear, appliances, stationery, hardware, house-ware, toiletries, candy, hosiery, sewing notions, novelty pottery and plants plus horticultural items.

"THIS STORE IS THE fourth TG & Y store I've opened in California, and 10 more are under construction," Henton explained. Other current stores in southern California are in San Diego, Ojai, and Lakewood.

TG & Y named for founders Tomlinson, Gosselin and Young, has 230 stores in the mid-west and southeast. The chain, headquartered in Oklahoma City, merged in 1957 with the nation-wide Butler Brothers merchandising firm.

Hicks Center Preps For Formal Opening

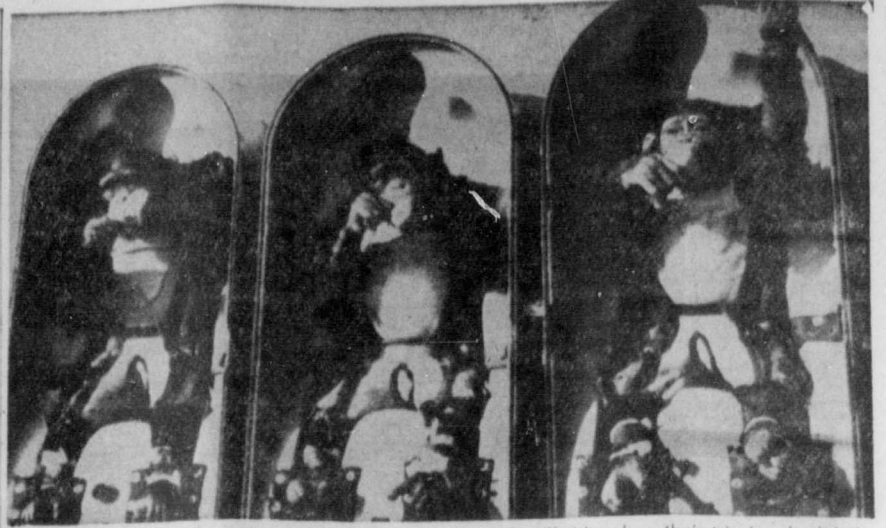

Formal opening of the Harold Hicks Center Thursday, Friday and Saturday marks the public recognition of a major commercial development in the 700 and 800 blocks of North Palm Canyon Drive which are already demonstrating strong customer impact.

Hicks, builder and owner of the 8,000 square foot post office building, planned the new 22,000 square foot development three years.

WITH MODERN, functional concrete and glass design by Ed Maurer of Austin, Tex., the $500,000 Hicks Center was built last fall by the M. J. Collins Company of Austin, with local subcontractors.

The new Hicks Center, already planned for expansion, now houses two stores, one investment firm, and will be the new home of the Hicks Insurance Company and Milton Hicks Investment Company. Two locations remain for rent in the section immediately south of the new post office.

HICKS CENTER general manager Bill McComas, who joined the firm two years ago, reported that an additional 10,000 square foot building is planned to join the El Paseo Pharmacy site south of the covered mall entrance to the paved parking area.

FEE DECISION GETS DELAY BY COUNTY

Building Director C. G. Bixel urged the Board of Supervisors this week to maintain the county fee for checking building plans, but said that if a change is to be made the fee should be accepted only on single family dwellings having less than 600 square feet. He suggested that fees for repeat single family dwelling plans in any one calendar year could be reduced 50 per cent.

THE SUPERVISORS delayed making a decision on the proposed reduction of check plan fees pending receipt next week of a more detailed report by Bixel giving dollar and cent figures on the amount taken in for the fees and a breakdown as to the type of structure. They ordered county counsel last week to prepare an ordinance amendment to reduce the fees on single family dwellings 50 per cent but the document is not yet ready for board action.

BIXEL INSISTED that the plan check and permit fees were the result of careful study to make the department self supporting. He admitted that the department has a surplus of approximately $20,000 but observed that this could be quickly wiped out by further cut-back in building construction activities.

Burglar 'Trap' Almost Gets Officer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (U.P.) — Harry Wu promised to tell police the next time he sees a bobby trap for a burglar. If it had worked the way he wanted it to, it might have killed a cop.

Wu, who owns the Chinese Tea Garden Cafe, said his place has been burglarized "so many times I've lost count."

"I set the thing to fix the next burglar," he said. Policeman Jerry Phillips was making his rounds early Monday and noticed a window open. He investigated and reached across the window sill. There was a brilliant flash.

He had brushed a string that triggered a rat trap, which in turn activated wires leading to an electrical socket supposed to send

DATE FESTIVAL'S CAFETERIA OKEH

INDIO — A highly pleasing departmental memorandum from the Division of Fairs and Expositions has been received by the National Date Festival and Riverside County Fair at Indio.

Manager Bob Fullenwider was notified that $140,000 has been allocated for a much-needed cafeteria at the Festival grounds. This capital improvement has been included in the 1961-1962 budget and funds will be available this Fall, Fullenwider was advised.

AN ADDITIONAL $200,000 for the construction of a new grandstand has been included in the 1962-63 budget and will be available in September, 1962.

"We are extremely pleased with the State's consideration," commented Fullenwider. "The present cafeteria is nothing more than a remodeled barracks which no longer can serve our needs."

The Date Festival — seventh largest fair in California — earns a greater financial return for the county and state than the majority of other fairs.

FULLENWIDER SAID the national horse show ranks as one of the largest in the West. Improved grandstand facilities will stimulate greater attendance.

The Festival's board of directors is expected to begin planning the two facilities immediately.

REPORTER'S DIARY:

Loatian Warfare Is Tough to Find

(EDITOR'S NOTE: UPI Correspondent Charles R. Smith has just returned from patrol with the Laotian army in northern Laos. In the following dispatch, he reports how difficult it is to find a war. Last year, Smith covered the riots that overthrew the Rhee government in Korea and the leftist violence in Japan that forced cancellation of President Eisenhower's trip.)

By CHARLES R. SMITH
ON PATROL WITH THE LAOTIAN ARMY — IN — There is a war going on in the sweltering jungles of Laos, but it is almost impossible to find.

Even the Laotian government is not always certain where it is or who is winning.

COME ALONG WITH me on patrol with a Laotian army unit and we will look for the elusive war together. You can be assured it is fairly safe and that the only shooting we will find will be coming from friendly forces — the Laotian army troops and their American advisers.

Our patrol first takes us to an army outpost on the northwestern outskirts of the royal capital of Luang Prabang. The outpost is a peaceful river town that the Communist Pathet Lao radio has claimed to have captured at least four times within the past month. But no shots have been fired in combat here in more than a month.

THE NEAREST PATHET Lao forces are at least 50 miles to the northeast, or roughly halfway between the famed Indochinese battleground of Dien Bien Phu and Luang Prabang.

WILSON'S JEWELERS
3 EXPERT WATCH MAKERS ON HAND TO SERVE YOU AT ALL TIMES
300 NO. PALM CANYON DR.
Across from the 16 Union Station

Fifty miles is not far if you are driving across Texas, but in this mountainous jungle country, it is a good five-day march — even for well-trained rugged soldiers.

Our patrol takes us out of Luang Prabang by jeep, but the road ends at a village only a few miles out where soldiers live in the Buddhist temple with robed monks.

AFTER PASSING through the village, we begin running across sentries armed with American rifles, submachine guns and carbines. They sit quietly in sniper positions — waiting for an unseen enemy.

We trudge up a steep mountain and see machine gun and mortar positions similar to those found south of the truce line in the Republic of Korea.

SEVERAL U.S. 81mm mortars and a host of 60mm mortars, as well as some new 57mm recoilless rifles and machineguns makes this one of the best armed outposts of the Laotian army.

But any self-respecting mortarman or artilleryman could sit on one of the mountains in the distance and wipe out this outpost in a matter of a few hours at the most. It is situated on a bare hill that is covered with ants and which stands out like a fully dressed man in a nudist colony.

A SHARP CRACK rings out. Lt. Rattanakone, G-3 (operations) officer for the regional headquarters, remarks casually, "That's a 57mm recoilless rifle."

After a short lull, there is a loud boom and a puff of smoke on the mountainside far in the distance.

"That's a mortar," the lieutenant says. "The Americans are giving instructions in firing new weapons we are getting in."

No Tax Slash For JFK, But Tax Reform Due

By GEORGE C. HARLAN
NEW YORK — The incoming Kennedy administration has doused cold water on hopes for any immediate tax cut to combat the recession, but pledged to ask Congress this year for enactment of a tax reform program.

Treasury Secretary-designate Douglas Dillon said he had no "present intention" to recommend a temporary tax reduction but left the door open to such a recourse later should the economic downturn worsen.

HOWEVER, DILLON said he will present to Congress some key proposals for tax reform by April 1. Details of the package proposal have not been worked out, he said, but there was speculation that it would include revisions aimed at spurring business spending for new plant and equipment.

Dillon also said that the federal government might operate in the red in fiscal 1962 as a result of recession-pinch tax revenues.

The Republican member of the Kennedy official family said the government had to "use restraint in spending programs." His view contrasted sharply with advisers to the Kennedy administration which are plumping for huge federal outlays to reverse the economic trend.

THE SCRAMBLED railroad merger picture was brought into sharp focus with the surprise decision by the B&O to abandon plans to merge with the New York Central in favor of a hookup with the Chesapeake & Ohio.

If approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission and shareholders of both roads the merger would be the biggest in industry history and create the second biggest rail system in the nation after the Pennsylvania.

The development dealt a body blow to the Central's plans to assemble a rail network in the east to act as a counterbalance to the giant system gradually being put together by the Pennsylvania railroad.

AS HAD BEEN FEARED unemployment last month jumped to 4,450,000, the highest December jobless level in 20 years. The sharp rise lifted the national jobless rate to 6.8 per cent compared with 6.3 per cent in November. This meant that 68 of every 1,000 men, women and teen-agers in the labor force were looking for jobs last month.

Steel operations rebounded after the holiday slump to about 47 per cent of industry capacity with actual tonnage up 23.4 per cent over the previous week.

A science demonstration by the sixth grade will be presented as part of the program.

Use of Parking Light Draws CHP Wrath

SACRAMENTO — "Many motorists apparently are still unaware that parking lamps are not a substitute for headlights," California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden pointed out this week.

"The law which prevents use of parking lamps while driving — except as a turning signal or when the headlights are also on — has been in the vehicle code for five years," he said, "but the incidence of incorrect usage is still high."

Passage of the law was designed to halt a dangerous practice. "It was Patrol experience that parking lights used as driving lights tended to confuse oncoming drivers. The pinpoints of light were misconstrued as regular headlights viewed at some distance."

"The recent fog which blanketed much of central California emphasized the problem," he pointed out. "The small amount of light provided by parking lamps could not be seen by approaching drivers."

"Whenever it is necessary to turn on your lights while driving, be sure it is the headlights, not the parking lights," he cautioned.

'Emotions Can Kill,' Says Menninger

CHICAGO — The real killer in many a fatal highway accident is "out of control emotions," according to psychiatrist Karl Menninger.

Menninger, head of the world famous Menninger Foundation in Topeka, Kan., writing in an insurance publication said, "There's a little murder and a little suicide in every man's heart."

"Give him such a powerful weapon as a car, inflame his inhibitions, irritations or frustrations then add alcohol or fatigue and the murder or suicide may get committed," Menninger wrote.

"We know relatively few accidents are wholly accidental," he said. "The number of accidents ascribable to pure chance must be well below 15 per cent."

"No healthy-minded person ever says 'It can't happen to me.' He might meet a fool, you know, or he might even temporarily be one."
